This time last year , I was planning a trip to Reno, to attend the world biggest trophy show, what a show . It gave me a lot of confidence for the Trophy industry here in NZ. I believe we must not let our so called marketing people DINZ get involved.

A great winter here in the south, which has seen some of the most prolific grass growth . I even had to get the neighbours 2000 sheep to trim up a paddock or two, first time for 20 years, sheep have been on Mayfield. They didn't look too bad either! hell this schedule must be getting to me!.

The EWS has been working steadily through the year on getting our marketing strategy ready for the NZ Elk Venison, (Its getting close and it will happen!) The EWS has been approached by a function in Auckland that are catering for 800 food junkies Chefs and food writer's, and were offered Cervena free, but they wanted NZ Elk, so that is what they are going to get, Great eh! .

I'd better move on and mention that the animals that we are putting up for Auction, are as good as I can produce. I know what they will be worth in another 2 years as trophy bulls, so this is your chance to make the best buy for the future of your deer farming enterprise, and to make a profit from the real hybrid vigour and trophy genes which these Elk Bulls will produce.

I have decided to go with the Blackboard system for my Auction this season. It allows more time under no pressure to look and bid, have a Vino or beer and eat some of Southland finest elk, cooked by the person who is at every show and deserves a medal for getting people eating NZ Elk no other than KEN SMITH. Mike McBride from Braeside Wapiti will have six of his finest Elk Bulls in our auction. All the best for the day and looking forward to the time that I should have to enjoy it with you!.

TOM & JO & JOSH MAY 2006.

How long will it take in New Zealand to match these statistics. He was 10 years ahead of any competition. The old saying the best die young, rings true here.
